INTRODUCING ASSOCIATES

Jérôme

Entrepreneur by nature, the world of business opened its arms to me at the age of 19, so it's been many years since my ambitions to develop projects that support people with a mindset similar to my own have taken shape.

A chaotic path for some, full of learning for others, starting from ideas and developing these projects to ultimately support

Stakeholders in their personal and financial development has led me to own and be associated today with several structures:

Digital communication and marketing agency,
Multiple E-trades and Investment Structures in the vast trading market and more specifically Automatic Trading.

Passionate about entrepreneurship, my approach as a company director has given me a great deal of insight into this more recent stage of investment. Indeed, when we understand how a structure works, we can better analyze and measure the level of risk of the companies in which we can diversify our investments.

And since investment = risk, the particularity of the entrepreneur is to limit these risks so as to approach the future with greater confidence and serenity.

Arnaud

Since 2009, after gaining a great deal of experience in the physical world, my interest turned to the online business and investment sector, which offered a wealth of opportunities. However, these opportunities required technical skills that I unfortunately didn't have at the time.

So I explored various approaches, which unfortunately ended in failure.

At the time, access to information was limited, making the search for solid opportunities more complex. Despite these setbacks, I persevered in my research and eventually discovered e-commerce, in which I became totally involved.

Subsequently, I explored other exciting fields such as blockchain and trading, opening up new perspectives.

Today, most of my time is devoted to these areas of activity.

My main aim is to create projects that are solid and sustainable over time, while making them accessible to as many people as possible through educational tools and by fostering the creation of a caring community.

This experience has given rise to Bull Invest, a synthesis of best practices in automatic investment.

Fabien

My entrepreneurial journey began in 2018 while I was studying to become a computer engineer, when I discovered that it was possible to create a business on the Internet from my computer.

From then on, everything followed on very quickly and I discovered the power that the internet offers to those who know how to take advantage of it in the right way and create a network around it to grow and reach new levels.

The world of finance and trading was an obvious choice for me, coming from a very "mathematical" background.

Described as the "Tech guy" of the bunch, it's with passion that I evolve in this environment. Our career path has led us to meet some very interesting people with whom we've been able to work, always looking to expand, learn and evolve within a rapidly expanding market.
